INTRODUCING THE MEN WHO HAVE JUST JOINED THE MSC:

DANIEL MAGADIA

Kamusta,

My name is Daniel Magadia, and I am from the festival city of churches, Adelaide, though I did not originate from there. I was born on November 24, 1992 in Quezon City, near the Philippines' capital, Manila. My family migrated to Adelaide almost twelve years ago, and our first exposure to Catholicism in Australia was at the Our Lady of Sacred Heart Parish at Henley Beach. That was also where I was introduced to the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart.

Through my time in the parish, I was also introduced to the Antioch Youth Movement, which has made an enormous impact in many aspects of my life and faith. It opened me as well to so many opportunities in being more active in the Church. Through Antioch, I was able to attend three Australian Catholic Youth Festivals, and the 2016 World Youth Day in Krakow, Poland. I found lifelong friendships in Antioch too.

So, what brought me to this point. Why now? For the past five years or so, I have revisited the possibility that maybe I am called to religious life, a call I once had as a little child (when I used to do "play Masses", complete with costume and props). So, I discerned. I attended a monthly vocation discussion group with young men from the Adelaide Archdiocese like myself. I finished a Theology degree. I had many conversations with recently ordained Fr Krish Mathavan MSC, who was guiding me for a couple of months leading into meeting the provincial and vocations director in Sydney. I also brought it to prayer. Eventually I have reached the point, that I realized God cannot drive a parked car. To use another analogy, I cannot be stuck aiming a basketball at a hoop, asking "what if" questions to myself. "What if it misses?" "What if shooting was not worth the effort?"

But amidst doubt and hesitation, there will come a time when I have to shoot the ball, to take that risk. Of course, this involves leaving the comforts of the familiar, and hopefully setting out into the deep. This is in the hope I find what God is calling me to be, what He has in-store in this journey of life.

But why the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart?

To put it simply, I was inspired by their witness of faith. I was attracted by their joy (despite facing challenges and suffering), their humour (which I later found out was encouraged in the MSC constitution), and their service for others. Before I was made aware of the MSC spirituality or charism, my first exposure of it was through how the MSC's lived it out, with the aim of being on earth the heart of God.

Lastly this brings me to exploring where do I see God working in my life. To be honest, this was the hardest to reflect on. Eventually I had to start with one of the fundamentals of the faith: The Sacraments. During my time in the parish and in Antioch, I have developed a greater appreciation of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Here I intimately witness God's mercy for me. Through the Eucharist, I am spiritually nourished and reminded, that my Catholic faith is first and foremost a relationship. Then I looked into the events when God was showing his sense of humour at my expense. In occasions like these, I learned to be humble, and that my relationship with God is not all seriousness. Some levity and mirth are essential.

PARISH VISION STATEMENT

As a people who believe and trust in the love of God for us, revealed in the heart of Christ, we live out this love in a welcoming and inclusive community that provides life-giving support and service to all people.

Gospel Reflection

Called to Serve Luke 5:1-11

You will often hear people ask: How did you come to be doing this job? Why do you think you are called to do this? We all have our talents and abilities. We are called to use them as well as we can. We are all called to different vocations.

In this scene, Luke takes us to the heart of what it means to be a disciple of Jesus, called to share his mission. Jesus has been anointed with the Spirit to preach the Good News to the poor. Here we catch a glimpse of those who are willing to hear that word and become followers.

Jesus met Peter at his work. While Jesus was speaking to the crowds, Peter was busy washing the fishing nets with his companions. His call came in the midst of his everyday work. Jesus decided to borrow Peter's boat so that he could preach to the people from that boat. The boat is always a symbol of the church.

Then Jesus invited Peter to put out into the deep and cast his net. To their amazement, the catch was more than they could have expected. They had been fishermen all their lives. Yet they had a catch that surpassed every former catch.

In this, Jesus was making it clear that their ministry was not their own. The success of their ministry was beyond their natural talents. Simon had already told Jesus: 'We have worked all night and caught nothing' (v.5). Their human endeavours had been fruitless. It seems that we have to exhaust ourselves in a fruitless way to be ready to acknowledge that the good they do is the fruit of grace. It is pure gift.

When Simon Peter sees the great catch of fish, he falls at Jesus' feet and declares: 'Leave me, Lord. I am a sinful man.' Jesus tells him: 'Do not be afraid.' The work you are called to do is God's work, not your own. Simon Peter, together with James and John, immediately leave everything and follow Jesus.

Peter surrendered to God's call and produced extraordinary results. So why do we hold back when we are called? It is God's work, not ours!

An Update of the Extraordinary Meeting of Parish Pastoral Council.

Your PPC met on Monday 4th February to begin the process of planning the withdrawal of the MSC Pastoral Care of our parish in June this year. As we each provided a brief introduction, I was humbled by the fruitfulness of our faith-filled parish community representatives.

I would like to report that your PPC are working together with Rev Dr Philip Marshal VG, representatives of the Archdiocese of Adelaide and Renewing Parishes Office, to plan and implement the handover of our parish.

We will continue to communicate the transitional process as it unravels, including opportunities for all to be heard.
Many blessings Narita Perrotta, on behalf of your PPC.
